Human Resource Development

- ❑ The Tribe has few members who are appropriately qualified to advise the Tribal Council on key technical and commercial issues relating to the exploration and exploitation of its mineral rights;
- ❑ there are few members of the Tribe who have the skills to participate in the exploration programme or mining process at a senior level.

Building capacity in the Tribal Council

- ❑ Wesizwe recognises that it cannot do business with the Tribe unless it is adequately equipped to participate fully;
- ❑ The company has therefore committed resources to build capacity within the Tribal Council. This includes:
 - Administrative capacity and infrastructure (computers, faxes, efficient administration systems etc)
 - Transport and communications; and
 - Administrative and technical training.

Developing the younger generations of Bakubung

- Once resources and reserves are established, it will take 4-7 years for a mine to come into production.
- In order to advance the younger members of the Tribe Wesizwe will make an effort to identify talented students from within the Tribe and to facilitate opportunities for them for entry into tertiary education and training institutions.
- The intention is to develop of the younger members of the tribe in professional disciplines related to mining and exploration so that they are prepared and can be employed by Wesizwe when mining finally takes place.

WESIZWE

Broader socio-economic development

- ❑ If mining does result from the exploration, substantial dividends should accrue to the Tribe.
- ❑ However, these will be limited to 20 or 30 years.
- ❑ As mining is not in the longer term sustainable, Wesizwe will assist the Tribe in the re-investment of its revenues from mining in socio-economic development projects which are sustainable such as agriculture, mariculture, tourism and associated enterprises.

WESIZWE

The Bakubung Tribe's Partner in Development

- ❑ Wesizwe will commit to local procurement when reasonably possible and economical.
- ❑ The Company undertakes to adhere to all the spirit and intent of broad based black economic empowerment;
- ❑ Where appropriate, Wesizwe will source from local suppliers of goods and services within the the Tribe and encourage other suppliers to seek local black economic empowerment partnerships within the tribe.
